

NEW Plus Dane Service Charges Forum Your Voice

We're launching a new Service Charges Forum for Plus Dane customers and invite you to share your views to shape future services.

What Is Involved?

- Two online meetings per year
- Open discussions on services, policies, and improvements with Plus Dane colleagues and other customers.

What Will We Talk About?

- What are service charges and why we need them
- How the current service charges work and how we set them
- Communication and customer service
- Your rights and responsibilities
- You will also have the opportunity to suggest topics for discussion.

Get Rewarded!

As a thank you for your time and contribution, everyone who attends the session will receive a £20 shopping voucher. We really value your input and want to show our appreciation for getting involved.

Why Join?

- You will be able to Influence decisions that affect your home
- You will help us shape the service going forward and make a real difference
- You will help us develop the best way to communicate what we do to other customers
- To make your voice heard in a meaningful way

Register your interest today:
irene.crone@plusdane.co.uk

